SEN. HESSELBEIN AND REP. CONSIDINE ANNOUNCE BUDGET LISTENING SESSIONS

MADISON – State Senator Dianne Hesselbein (D-Middleton) and State Representative Dave Considine (D-Baraboo) announced today that they will be hosting two budget listening sessions. Governor Evers delivered his 2023-25 biennial budget address on Wednesday, February 15th and these listening sessions are for constituents to find out more about what is included in that proposal.

“These sessions are a wonderful opportunity for the public to learn about the governor’s budget and ask questions about the various provisions,” said Sen. Hesselbein. “I look forward to hearing from our constituents on the budget issues that matter most to them.”

“Listening sessions provide an opportunity for constituents to share their priorities,” said Rep. Considine. “Hearing from constituents is my favorite part of being a state representative. I look forward to hearing community members’ thoughts on the proposed budget and any ideas they may have.”
